Skills

- Leadership and Mentorship: Ability to lead a team and guide other developers, a strong sense of responsibility and expertise and effective communication.
- Collaboration and Teamwork: Working with UX/UI designers and other team members . This skill demonstrates my ability to communicate technical ideas to non-technical people and to work together to achieve a common goal.
- Problem-Solving: A strong analytical mindset and the ability to find effective solutions.
- Communication: Giving constructive feedback, collaborating with designers, and participating in team meetings all through clear and concise communication.
- Results-Oriented: A focus on tangible outcomes like increased site traffic, improved conversion rates, and reduced server response time. This demonstrates my ability to connect technical work directly to business goals.
